

Traditional Knowledge Scholar Lecture Series – Fall 2009
Applied Indigenous Studies
SBS West (Bldg. #70) – Room 9 (Bottom floor)

SEPTEMBER

Thursday, September 10th

Maybelle Little

Emergence of Beings from Lower Worlds according to the Diné Taboos
1:30–2:30PM

Wednesday, September 16th

Bob Lomadafkie

Foundations for Native Arts
10:00–11:00AM

Monday, September 21st

Marina Vasquez

The Importance of Higher Education: Tips for Freshman students to deal with the cultural shock of the first semester while maintaining a cultural and spiritual balance and identity
4:00–5:00PM

OCTOBER

Thursday, October 8th

Maybelle Little

Glittering World – Creation of five (5)-Fingered Beings, Arrogance and Consequences of Bad Behavior Taboos
1:30–2:30PM

Wednesday, October 14th

Bob Lomadafkie

Guadalupe Hidalgo Treaty to the Peaks
10:00–11:00AM

Monday, October 19th

Marina Vasquez

Indigenous Women in Leadership: This lecture will focus on the expected role of Indigenous women in maintaining ethnic identity, cultural and spiritual balance in the university setting.
4:00–5:00PM

NOVEMBER

Thursday, November 12th

Maybelle Little

Diné Shoe Game – How day and night came to be Taboos
1:30–2:30PM

Wednesday, November 18th

Bob Lomadafkie

Transitions from Traditional Ways to Contemporary Ways
10:00–11:00AM

Monday, November 23rd

Marina Vasquez

The Fast Track and the Spiritually - Balanced Life: This lecture will focus on how you can balance every day struggles and still be able to maintain a spiritual life, productive and positive life
4:00–5:00PM

ONLY CASSETTE TAPE RECORDING ALLOWED.

For Parking Permits, please contact
Parking Services at 523-3591

Northern Arizona University
Department of Applied Indigenous Studies
Social and Behavioral Sciences West
Bldg. 70, Room 100
P.O. Box 15020
Flagstaff, AZ 86011
Phone: (928) 523-6624
www.nau.edu/ais

For More Information
please call or e-mail:

Bob Lomadafkie:
928-523-5929,
bob.lomadafkie@nau.edu

Maybelle Little:
928-523-5928,
maybelle.little@nau.edu

Marina Vasquez:
928-523-5927,
marina.vasquez@nau.edu